

Transitional Resources' 4th Annual Garden Party

You are cordially invited to attend our 4th Annual Garden Party!

Transitional Resources (TR) has the smallest certified organic garden in the Seattle area!

Take a tour of our facilities or join TR Community Supporters, our Board of Directors, Clients, and Staff in some gardening on Saturday, May 17th, 2008 from 9am-4pm. Please take this opportunity to come and see our facility and how our clients benefit from your generous support. Come for an hour or stay the day!

Your participation will help us kick-start our growing season which is an integral part of our vocational

What: Transitional Resources' 4th Annual Garden Party
When: Saturday, May 17th from 9am-4pm (this is an all-day event, so you can show up any time!)
Where: 2970 SW Avalon Way
Seattle, WA 98126

Special Guest* Christine Keff, Executive Chef from Flying Fish restaurant, will be performing a cooking demo at 11:00 am!

Lunch and garden tools will be provided for this rain or shine event.

This is a great way to see how far your support goes - so come and join us for a tour or some gardening!

If you would like more information about our Garden Party, please visit our website at www.transitionalresources.org or contact Karyn by phone (206) 883-0640 or email KarynM@transitionalresources.org.

If you are unable to attend the event but would like to support TR and our vocational programs, here is an idea of what your contribution can buy:

- $20 will purchase garden seeds
- $50 will purchase 5 hours of client training
- $100 will purchase new garden tools

We look forward to seeing you at our Garden Party!
