Getting There

Parking is very limited during West Seattle Summer Fest, so bus, bike, skate, walk or run to West Seattle Summer Fest! If you must drive, please carpool!

METRO TRANSIT Why not leave the driving up to Metro Transit? Metro bus routes #54 and #55 (express routes from Downtown) stop right in the Junction. Schedule information is available from Metro at <http://transit.metrokc.gov/>. Click on Trip Planner to organize your personalized trip to the Festival or call 206.553.3060.

WATER TAXI The Elliott Bay Water Taxi crosses Elliott Bay between Downtown Seattle (Pier 55 at Spring Street) and West Seattle (Seacrest Dock) seven days a week. It's only a 12 minute ride with a FREE Shuttle from the dock directly to the Festival. For more information visit http://transit.metrokc.gov/tops/oto/water_taxi.html.

DRIVING DIRECTIONS From I-5, take Spokane Street Exit 163a and go West over the West Seattle Bridge and up the hill. Proceed on Fauntleroy Avenue for 0.4 miles. Turn Right on SW Alaska Street, heading West for 0.3 miles.

Music

Carrie Clark & Lonesome Lovers An Americana carnivale ride blending country, folk and cabaret featuring songs about one night stands, love lust divas and dark lullabies.

Adrian Xavier band Performing for almost two decades, Seattle's Adrian Xavier blends sax and fiddle, reggae and soul, in a highly appealing musical brew.

Capping Day This moody, jangly pop group burst out onto the then grunge-dominated Seattle music scene in the late 80s; ironically, Capping Day was one of the first Seattle alternative rock groups destined for success.

Carrie Akre Carrie created a name for herself as lead singer of underground bands Hammerbox and Goodness. Come see her perform songs from her latest release "Last the Evening"

Coffin Break Seattle's hardcore metal-heads Coffin Break return after a 13-year hiatus., Louder and Faster than ever!

Colby Imus & The Good Lieutenants Expect the unexpected in unique modern song and sound, inspired by american roots, show tunes and voodoo rock and roll.

Funkscribes Family Affair Stanky, horn-driven ORIGINAL funk dedicated to movin' your booty. New album has members of Parliament-Funkadelic, Altered States, and Marmalade.

Green Pajamas Influenced by 60s psychedelia and the "paisley underground" music scene, The Green Pajamas formed way back in 1983. Eight albums later they are still ahead of the times while remaining lost in time.

Hockey After getting their start in Los Angeles, Portland-based Hockey now brings its catalog of soul-rockin' pop gems to the great Northwest.

Jared Clifton Jared Clifton is best known as the former singer for Radio Nationals. His songs range from bar room rockers to mournful country twang.

Kristen Ward Kristen Ward, Seattle based singer songwriter, with her band, delivers honest rootsy rock-and-roll with a lonely western twist."

Maldives Old-time banjo, fiddle and pedal steel help to authenticate this Seattle nine-piece as a truly western inspired rock band. Music country style BBQ.

Mark Pickerel & His Praying Hands Former Screaming Trees drummer Mark Pickerel's new CD, Cody's Dream, is rife with mossy ballads and interstate rockers crackling like unrequited CB transmissions.

McTuff McTUFF is about letting it go and having fun, bringing you back to a time when ORGANS RULED THE EARTH!

Oncore (cover band) Dance Through The Decades With Oncore, a nine-piece band that plays excellent cover songs you can sing along to.

Peoples Republic of KomedY Local comedians.

Picoso All original salsa and son montuno with enough flavor to satisfy the music aficionado, give the groove-junky his rhythm fix and keep the people dancing all at the same time.

Pillow Army Pillow Army is indie-rock with a string section, stretching and twisting pop music without it breaking. Well, sometimes it breaks.

Ragged Glory Ragged Glory is a West Seattle garage band paying tribute to the ultimate garage band...Neil Young and Crazy Horse.

Ranger and the Re-Arrangers Ranger and the "Re-Arrangers" play swing standards, traditional Gypsy tunes, and originals in the driving "Gypsy jazz" or "hot jazz" style.

Sage Three-piece band heralding from the distant 90's, brings an eclectic mix of heavy bass and darkly twangy guitar to the stage.

Saturday Knights Tapping deep into their creative skills and unprecedented personal charm, The Saturday Knights are a flawlessly fluid integration of vintage rock, lady-loving soul, and trailer park punk.

SHIM With pounding, pulsating anthems and a live show that stuns with flashing lights and smoke machines, SHIM is rock 'n' roll as it was meant to be played.

Swallow Swallow put the 'pop' in Sub Pop in 1988. Twenty years later they still wear their flannel with a dinner jacket and nice shoes.

Swamp Soul Swamp Soul Band plays dance music from SW Louisiana. Cajun and Zydeco music are both on the menu when this group performs!

Music

The Coyotes A five piece rock and roll band. electric guitar, bass, and drums and saxophone. Be gentle with me, please.

The Lonely Forest The Lonely Forest is an energetic indie-rock band from the small island town of Anacortes, WA.

The Preons The Preons play warm, mellow indie rock laced with lush layers of harmonica, trumpet, and keyboards.

The Special Places West Seattle residents Corianton Hale and Jenny Mears, bandmates in Tullycraft, show off their softer and sassier sides with their new acoustic combo.

Tullycraft Tullycraft are masters of twee-pop, but what makes their brand particularly exciting is their ability to bolster the twee with some rock band muscle.

Verona If you enjoy emotionally driven vocals and lush, guitar-based rock, Verona is your band!

Westerly Local alt-country favorites, Westerly blends elements of rock, country, and folk to create songs that are both modern and familiar.
