CAMP DETAILS

The Sealth Basketball and Life Skills Camp is entering its twelfth year. The philosophy of the camp is to provide a positive and fun learning experience to youth by exposing them to the fundamentals of basketball and life, including the values and qualities that we feel are necessary to be successful in these arenas.

Camp Director are Co-Head Boy's Basketball Coaches Sam Reed and Colin Slingsby - who will be entering his seventh season as head coach and his ninth season overall on the coaching staff at Sealth. Coach Slingsby was voted Metro League Coach of the Year for the 2005-2006 season and was awarded the 2006-2007 "statesman award" for the state of Washington by the PNBOA for sportsmanship. The 2008-09 Sealth team advanced to the final round of the district tournament, finishing with an 16-11 overall record, 9-6 in Metro League play.

The coaching staff's vision of the Sealth Basketball Program is that all of our players will graduate on time, move on to some level of higher education, and leave Sealth with the values necessary to enter the world as positive young men. Since 2001, 30 of 33 graduating seniors have progressed on to college. The hard work of the coaches and young men in our program are helping produce young men who are responsible student-athletes and positive representatives of Chief Sealth High School. Through Sealth Basketball and Life Skills Camp, the Boys Basketball program is helping Chief Sealth High School become more recognized as a successful neighborhood school in West Seattle.

Coaching: Sealth Basketball and Life Skills Camp is organized and run by the Boy's Basketball Program at Chief Sealth High School. High School Coaches and current and former high school and college players will provide coaching by exposing campers to fundamental skills of the game through proven coaching methods. Our camp does not guarantee success as a player but it will expose campers to the ingredients necessary to becoming a skilled player.

Life Skills: Daily lectures will cover topics such as goal-setting, academic success strategies, and important qualities and values such as hard work, respect, integrity, self-discipline, along with other important life lessons.

Insurance: All campers must provide their own medical insurance coverage.

Accommodations: Each Camper will receive a camp T-shirt and have opportunities to win prizes throughout camp. Campers must provide their own lunch.

Camp Store: There will be a camp store available where pizza, candy, and beverages can be purchased.
