

Seattle Youth Violence Prevention Initiative

Southwest Network Community Meeting

Chief Sealth High School (Cafeteria)
5950 Delridge Way SW
Seattle, WA 98106

November 17th 6:00pm–8:15pm

Purpose: The Southwest Network Community Meeting will provide a platform for community members to engage in dialogue around the Seattle Youth Violence Prevention Initiative and for young people to have a voice.

Come meet our Southwest network service providers, and join us in a conversation to address the rising needs of our youth in the community.

Get involved and partner up with grassroots efforts and collaborations.

Meeting Agenda

- | | |
|-----------------|--|
| • 6:00pm-6:15pm | Welcome & Refreshments |
| • 6:15pm-6:30pm | Opening Remarks: Steve Daschle, Robert Gant |
| • 6:30pm-6:40pm | Youth Voice: "Walking in our Shoes" |
| • 6:40pm-7:00pm | Seattle Youth Violence Prevention Initiative |
| | Update: Mariko Lockhart and Robert Gant |
| • 7:00pm-7:35pm | Community Conversations (Break out groups) |
| • 7:35pm-8:00pm | Breakout groups report back |
| • 8:00pm-8:15pm | Youth dance performance/Closing |

*Youth will be given the opportunity to voice their life experiences, and concerns on how youth violence has affected their life and community via A short camera interview. Video release is required for participation and Includes eligibility for raffle ticket with participation.

Co-Sponsored:

Seattle Youth Violence Prevention Initiative

For more information, contact: Robert Gant, 206-937-7680 or email rgant@swyfs.org