

WEST SEATTLE LIONS CLUB CANDIDATE

KELSEY BILLS just finished her first year of college at University of Puget Sound in Tacoma. She will major in molecular cellular biology and minor in German. Her volunteer work at Seattle Children's Hospital and as a camp counselor at Camp Colman have influenced her plan to be a pediatrician. Kelsey enjoys spending time with her sisters of Alpha Phi. Outside of school Kelsey enjoys spending time with family and friends. Kelsey loves to travel and has been on two exchange trips to Europe plus she's explored much of the United States and the Caribbean. This summer she is excited to participate in all of the different events from the White Rose Ceremony to the abundance of parades, all concluding with the crowning jewel, coronation, at the end of July. Through her experience she hopes to interact and make an impact on the community by showing them that "Dreams Do Come True" and if everyone works and comes together, anything is possible; all you have to do is dream.
