

CONSTRUCTION ALERT

SW Cloverdale Street Sidewalk Project

Late September to Late October 2011

What to Expect During Construction:

- Temporary driveway closures
- Parking restrictions
- Traffic / pedestrian detours
- Moderate construction noise and dust
- Tree trimming and removal
- Normal work hours will be 7 a.m. – 4 p.m., M-F

Construction Starting the Week of September 26th, 2011

The Seattle Department of Transportation (SDOT) will be constructing a new sidewalk and other pedestrian improvements on SW Cloverdale Street. Work is scheduled to begin on 9/26/11 and is expected to be completed by mid-to-late October, weather permitting.

This project is part of the “Bridging the Gap” transportation levy approved by Seattle voters in November 2006.

Project area

The new sidewalk will be on the south side of SW Cloverdale Street between 8th Avenue SW and 9th Avenue SW.

Project elements

- A new sidewalk with planting strip in some locations
- ADA compliant wheelchair ramps at all four corners of 9th Ave SW and SW Cloverdale St
- Rebuilding portions of some driveways to smoothly connect to the new sidewalk
- Relocating the marked crosswalk at 9th Ave SW & SW Cloverdale St to the south side of the street
- Street trees and grass seed where possible
- Artwork embedded in the new sidewalk
