

King County

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the West Seattle High School boys baseball team beat Eastside Catholic, 3-1, to win the Metro League title on May 14 at Mel Olsen Stadium in White Center's Steve Cox Memorial Park; and

WHEREAS, Pitcher Miles Gosztola was selected as the Metro League Most Valuable Player, striking out 107 batters and giving up just 10 hits in 55 innings pitched; and

WHEREAS, the team was guided by Head Coach Dylan McLaughlin and Coaches Mike Fahy, Tyler Haggett, Kerry Tupper, and Jeff Freeman; and

WHEREAS, six Wildcats were selected for the All-Metro League First Team: Catcher Jake Lockwood, DH/Utility Player Jaxton Helmstetler, Infielder Caden Fahy, Outfielder Cooper Hubbard, and Pitchers Miles Gosztola and Felix Schlede; and

WHEREAS, the team was also well-represented on the All-Metro League Second Team by DH/Utility Player Weston Webb, Infielder Maddox Brent, Outfielder Nick Hazelgrove, and Matthew Henning, who was honored as both an outfielder and as a pitcher; and

WHEREAS, West Seattle put together a run in the State 3A Tournament to finish in the Final Four and complete the winningest season (24-3) in school history.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Dow Constantine, Executive of King County, do hereby proclaim June 17, 2022 to be in King County. I encourage all residents to join me in congratulating the players, coaches and supporters of the West Seattle High School Wildcats baseball team for a landmark season!

West Seattle High School Baseball Day

Dow Constantine
King County Executive